

MISSOURI
BEEF
INDUSTRY COUNCIL
Funded by Beef Farmers and Ranchers

Baby cows are called calves. Calves are born each year on farms and ranches where they live with their mothers.

Do you know where your hamburger comes from?
The steaks and hamburgers you eat come from cattle.
Families like yours live in the country and raise cattle on farms and ranches.

Mother cows and their calves eat grass in pastures. Cows graze and watch over their calves.